

Dry Times Farm Day

Preparing for winter 2018

This practical farm day aim to assist farmers through the process of planning for the dry autumn and winter. The day will have input from David Huggins - ruminant nutritionist at Ridley, Noel Jansz - agronomist at Elders, Tony Platt - rural manager at Rabobank, Ashley Horsburgh – dairy farmer mental health officer at Latrobe Regional Hospital and Wayne Jefferis - rural financial counselor. Collectively these service providers will help you understand your current position and plan ahead for dry season.

Key topics to be covered:

- Feed budgeting in a dry season
- What to expect from pastures moving through the season
- Financial budgeting – know your situation
- Buying feed based on quality and value
- Managing herd health and welfare
- Looking after yourself and your people
